THE MILITIA APPOINTMENTS

Probable Plum For Mr. Wise. Hon. J. Hoge Tyler as Gubernatorial Candidate. Drowned in the Dock. The Hoge Purse. Other Matters.

Special Disputch to the Virginian. RICHMOND, Va., March 1.—Hon, Hoge Tyler has been visiting in J. Hoge Tyler has been visiting in Caroline county among relatives and friends of his boyhood this week. A letter received from Caroline says Maj. Tyler gave his friends to understand that he would be a candidate for Governor. With the exception of Maj. Tyler, there are no avowed candidates for the Governorship. Hon. J. Taylor Ellyson is pretty sure to be in the race, and it is probable that Fitz Lee will be induced to run.

pretty sure to be in the race, and it is probable that Fitz Lee will be induced to run.

The report that President Cleveland will provide an office for Hou. George D. Wise occasioned but little surprise here, for it was well known that the President is very fond of the Congressman, whose long and honorable service will end on Monday. It is thought that Mr. Cleveland will make Wise a Land Commissioner and later on, if an opportunity offers, will provide more handsomely for him.

The body of Michael Garland, who has been missing from his home since Friday before Christmas, was found in the dock this morning. Garland was on a spree the day he disappeared, and it is presumed he walked into the water while drunk, He leaves a widow and children. Congressman-elect Tazewell Ellett has resigned as a member of the Board of Visitors of the Virginia Military Institute, and Col. G. Percy Hawes, of this city, has been appointed by the Governor to succeed him.

There has been many guesses as to the size of the purses of gold presented to Dr. Hoge by the members of his congregation. It is pretty well understood now that the total was about $3,000. The gentlemen are said to have raised $2,000 and the ladies $1,000. The popular divine received other valuable gifts, Dr. Hoge has stood the strain upon him during the week remarkably well.

Newport News, March 1.—A serious cutting affray took place here yesterday morning between M. J. Eastman and John A. Hatton, both of this city. There seems to have been a quarrel, which led up to a right, in which Eastman was stabbed several times by Hatton before they could be separated. Hatton claims he did the stabbing in self defense and that he was forced into the fight by Eastman. Dr. Charles and Dr. Gary were called in to dress Eastman's wounds. They pronounce the wounds as severe, but, with one exception, not dangerous. Hatton is; in custody ponding the doctors' report. Both parties are married men, well known here, and many options are expressed as to the trouble. Messrs, Brickford & Stuart, Garrett & Lett and H. B. Kane have been retained to defend Hatton. The latest report is that Mr. Eastman is seriously cut.
